New York, December 3.—There is a wide difference of expert opinion of member of the world's champion need the relative merits of Mike Gibbons, or St. Paul, and Eddie McGoorty, of Osnikosk, who will meet in a bout for the middleweight championship in Madison Square Garden to-morrow night. Both men are as fit as hard work and careful training can make them, so if condition is a forecast there will be some scrap.

Bob Armstrong, it is former heavy: weight nghier, who has been training McGoorty, declares that the opinion in some of the world's canamism of the straining mossible to get him is all nonsense. Philadelphia, December 2.—Battling Nelson was in the wind-up at the boxing matinee held by A. J. Drexel ("Dony)
Biddle at his residence here this afternoon, going three rounds with his host before 100 prominent club men.
Nelson, in a speech, said: "You can rest assured that I have not taken the count. I feel fit and ready to give a good account of myself at any time. The truth of the lightweight championship matter is that I have never been beaten for the title. While Wolgast may have been awarded the honors in our meeting at San Francisco February 22, 1916, I was not knocked out or beaten.
